

Taking God at His Word

Chapters 5-6

1. From chapter 5 of Taking God at his Word. Did anything stick out to you from this chapter? How were you challenged, encouraged or informed?
2. On page 75, in talking about examining the Scriptures, DeYoung says: "God's people should be testing everything against God's word." Is that something you do? Why or why not?
3. From pages 76-78, in your own words, explain the views of Scripture and authority representing the three branches of contemporary Western Christianity:
 - a) Roman Catholic
 - b) Liberal Protestant
 - c) Evangelicals.
4. From pages 78-80, how are general and special revelation similar? How are they different?
5. Before moving on to chapter 6, read the quote on the bottom of page 82 by J. I. Packer.
6. From chapter 6, is there anything from this chapter that you would like to discuss further?
7. From pages 88-90. According to the section titled "A Different Source," how are we to know the hidden things of God?
