

Discipleship 201 Devotional Options

Podcasts: Podcasts are a great way to receive encouragement and truth while doing everyday tasks like driving, cooking or going for a walk. You can find these by searching the titles on Apple Music or Spotify.

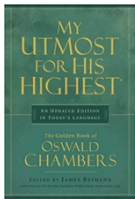

Pray the Word with David Platt: Short, daily meditations on God’s Word that not only drive us to pray, but drive how we pray. Featuring teacher, author, and pastor David Platt.

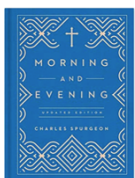

Timothy Keller Sermons Podcast by Gospel in Life: These podcasts are longer as they are whole sermons by Tim Keller, Pastor Emeritus of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in New York City and NY Times best-selling author of “The Reason for God: Belief in an Age of Skepticism.” Three or four are released each week.

Online and in print: These can be found online or for purchase on Amazon. They range from simple (like Solid Joys) and more involved (like For the Love of God).

My Utmost for His Highest: This devotional is a classic, written by Oswald Chambers. It is also short and simple. You can read it online for free (website: utmost.org) or you can purchase a copy online.

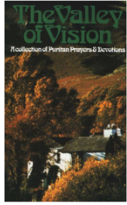

Morning and Evening: Written by Charles Spurgeon. This devotional offers practical insights into everyday Christian living. You’ll be challenged to reflect on the redemptive work of Christ and the power you have in Him to live for God’s glory.

Solid Joys: A daily devotional from the ministry of John Piper. These short but substantive readings aim to feed your joy in Jesus every day of the year. You can read it online for free (website: solidjoys.desiringgod.org) or you can download the free app to your phone.

Tabletalk: Daily Bible studies are the method for taking readers through the Bible, while theological articles by Dr. Sproul and other noted scholars address a particular theme each month. Tabletalk can be purchased for your phone or tablet. You can also purchase a physical copy to be sent to your home. Website: ligonier.org/tabletalk.

The Valley of Vision: A Collection of Puritan Prayers & Devotions. Draw upon the inspiration of the elegant prayers of such Puritans as John Bunyan, Isaac Watts, David Brainerd, Augustus Toplady, and Charles Spurgeon. The Valley of Vision has been prepared not to simply supply Christians with prayers, but to prompt and encourage them as they walk upon the path of others who've gone before them. You'll relish the elegance of these writings as they transport you to the heavenly throne of grace. Topics include redemption and reconciliation, holy aspirations, penitence, and more. You can read it for free, thanks to "The Banner of Truth," just click here.

For the Love of God: A Daily Companion for Discovering the Riches of God's Word, Volume 1. This devotional contains a systematic 365-day plan, based on a Bible-reading schedule designed in the 1800's by a Scottish minister named Robert M'Cheyne. This devotional will, in the course of a year, guide you through the New Testament and Psalms twice and the rest of the Old Testament once. D. A. Carson has also written insightful comments and reflections regarding each day's scriptural passages. You can purchase a physical or an electronic copy online.
